Boston Novemr. 9. 1767

Gentlemen

In obedience to the Orders of the Town it is our Honor to serve, We inclose you the Votes past at their Meeting held the 28d. October last.

The Town being greatly in Debt abroad, and apprehending the usual Imports under the encreasing Burthens upon Trade cannot be continued without greatly embarrassing the Community perhaps to its utter ruin, have entred into the Measures herewith transmitted.

We know you regard the general Interest of North America and we presume you will not be backward to promote such similar Measures as you Judge will tend to the Emolument of your Town and Province.

Your Most Obed. Humble Servt

Joseph Jackson
Samuel Sewall
John Ruddock
John Hancock
